

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

It's a good idea to keep the Village atmosphere of Palm Springs—but when you're looking for an address in the outlying district at night, either street lights or luminous street signs would come in handy.

THE VILLAGE—Paul Grimm, noted Village artist, gets the entire column by E. P. Perrine in the Southwest News-Press (Los Angeles) and, incidentally, Palm Springs shares in the praise. Artist Grimm's "Sunny Sand Waves" was the cause of it all. John Wood took a lot of kidding from Bob Hope and wife when the Village's famous sunshine turned a bit damp, Sunday, and halted their golf game. . . . Serves Hope right for likening Palm Springs to a barbecue pit with a cover charge. . . . Dr. O. B. McRory says the postoffice crew is pretty clever. He found a letter in his mail box addressed to "Dr. Mac Gorty" and it was for him. Took a smart P. O. clerk to solve that one.

THAT BIRD—Frank Partridge, not having been mentioned here for a long time, (at least a week) submitted two items for me this week: (a) When son Jimmy went to San Francisco to await shipment overseas, Mrs. Partridge prepared a fried chicken which was sent to him. He sailed before it got to San Francisco. That was around Christmas. He hasn't got it yet. When that chicken finally catches up with him, it'll be strong enough to lick the entire Jap army single-winged. . . . (b) What will happen to all of the Village photographers if everyone follows the advice of the current No. 1 song and "eliminates the negative"? he wants to know.

MUSIC—All nine songs on last Saturday's Hit Parade were numbers mentioned in this column in the past three weeks, picks by Villagers and the family. . . . The two "lonely" numbers mentioned last week were 3 and 4 and from indications maybe 1 and 2 soon. . . . Those Villagers who have heard Jose Iturbi swing it and hoped he'd include one of his famous jive interpretations on his program here, won't have to wait. Ted Reed received a batch of Iturbi's Boogie-Woogie records this week. . . . "When I hear that 'My Dreams are Getting Better' number, I can close my eyes and just see an old-time soft-shoe dancer doing his stuff" said a Villager this week. Coming to think of it, it is that kind of a tune.

THIS AND THAT—A Village child startled his teacher this week by explaining that a service star in a window meant "one husband in the home". Investigation revealed that he had asked a woman what the star meant and she told him a star was displayed for every person from that house in the service. "For instance," she said, "There's one from my house in the army, my husband." The kid got it almost right, anyway. . . . Pleasant sight—a big truck and trailer on Palm Canyon drive trying to roar through town but stymied by double parkers and jay walkers. . . . With parking space as limited as it is, something should be done about these people who park and just sit in their cars to read the paper.

THE NEWS—"1207 Rats Nests Destroyed by Sportsmen in Pass Area" says headline. That doesn't begin to compare with what their soldier sons are doing in Germany. . . . "Twins Born in L. A. Auto Ten Minutes Apart" and probably ten miles apart the way they drive there. . . . "Russ Crack Order Line." Bet that smelled bad to Hitler. . . . "The Watch on the Rhine" has now dropped out of Adolf's Hit Parade.

IN CONCLUSION—When Kipling wrote about the east and the west and "never the twain shall meet," he didn't know what was going to happen to the German front lines.

2 Organizations Pass Quota Mark In Hospital Drive

The Palm Springs Community Hospital campaign was two-fifths along the way today with Earl J. Smith, in charge of the drive, and Florian Boyd, chairman of the board, reporting $80,196 as subscribed as of this week. The goal is $200,000.

Hold Two Men For Study of Hold-up Story

Two men were held on suspicion today by county authorities while an investigation of their actions at the Palm Springs depot early Wednesday morning was under way.

Local police were called upon for help by the Banning sheriff's sub-station when a report came in of an attempted hold-up at the local depot. Although the depot is out of the city limits, Officers Joe Smoot and Steven Smith responded. At the road leading to the depot from Highway 111, they met Officers Brown and Pratt from the sub-station and the four proceeded to the depot. While the county men watched the road, Officers Smith and Smoot searched along the tracks and soon came upon two men, one giving his name as Pedro Jacinto, 46, of El Paso, and the other as John E. Schultz, 33, Indio.

David Rosenfeld, station master, identified the pair as the men who had watched him count.

Golf Clubs?

Give 'em to Boys Overseas

Got any old hoodoo golf sticks or golf balls you are contemplating putting in the incinerator?

Don't.

Take them down to the American Legion Dugout instead.

At this week's meeting of the Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion, Pvt. H. G. Freeman of the 21st Ferrying Group appeared and read a letter from a pal on a South Pacific island.

"Our favorite amusement down here is miniature golf—but we haven't enough clubs or balls. If you get track of any, send 'em to us."

The Legion immediately assumed the responsibility of collecting the needed articles.

Just leave them at the Dugout and either the Red Cross or the Legion will see to it that the boys on the unnamed Pacific island, can play minnie golf.

Second report, revealing progress, was made at the meeting of the Woman's club, Monday.

PLAN GREAT PREMIERE

In the meantime, plans for a gigantic premiere of "God Is My Co-Pilot," taken from the book by Col. Robert L. Scott, noted war aviator, were going on apace.

Warner Brothers are donating the picture and the accompanying features. A gala program is being arranged. Tickets will be available for $25 donations to the Hospital fund and the feature of the evening will be the award of an Oldsmobile coupe, donated to the Hospital campaign by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. McCoubrey of the Rubidoux Motors, Oldsmobile and Cadillac dealers, in the Plaza.

ONE OF BEST

"God Is My Co-Pilot" is rated one of the year's top pictures and Col. Jack Warner will be here in person for the event.

In his report at the Woman's Club, Mr. Smith revealed that two local groups have already exceeded their quotas. St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal church, which had raised $7,272 against a quota of $5,000, and the Hotels, of which Earl Coffman is chairman, and which had subscribed $13,747 against a $13,000 quota.

Other organizations were rolling along toward the quotas and to date $13,173 had been subscribed, undesignated to any group.

ADD TO BOARD

Next report will be made next Wednesday at the meeting of the Rotary Club.

Chairman Boyd announced that Mrs. Fred S. Markham and Miss Teresa M. Fields had been added to the Palm Springs Community Hospital board.

Chairman Ernest Alschuler of the publicity committee said that next week an Honor Roll of hospital subscribers would be issued.

Final report on the campaign will be made Friday, March 16, at a Victory Luncheon at the Desert Inn. Chairman Boyd requested that all solicitors in the campaign set aside these two luncheon hours and dedicate them to the Hospital campaign.

He further expressed his hope that other civic and social affairs which might be scheduled, would be cancelled because of the seriousness and the importance of the Community Hospital.

At the Realty Board's monthly meeting Wednesday, Chairman

Rodeo Stars To Perform At Big Show

Program for Old
West Show March 24
And 25 Taking Form

A real out and out rodeo with all of the trimmings, featured by famous stars of the rodeo world as well as intrepid horsemen of the Village, is in the making for March 24 and 25 at the Field Club, George Rasmussen, in charge of the program, said today.

"The hard-bucking horses and those mean, tough Brahma bulls, that have been used in all of the best rodeos in the southland, will be there," he said. "The quarter horse races should really bring out everyone who loves to see these short-coupled fast ponies start and really thud the turf."

TO SETTLE FEUD

"We have assurance that Jeeps and Spooks will be here to settle their two-panel feud. Many other notable speedsters that sprinted at Tucson and at all of the best horse shows will be here.

"One of the big events will be the rubber event between Joe Butler and Phil Delano. Each has won one race and this event will decide who owns the fastest horse."

Many of the local horsemen and amateur cowboys who have competed often in calf roping and wild cow milking contests have indicated their intention of entering competition at the rodeo providing additional color for the event.

TO GO WEST

Western atmosphere will prevail for the week before the rodeo. Many businessmen have made arrangements to have their staffs appear in western costume for the week and most stores plan Western window displays.

Rodeo headquarters will be maintained at the Chamber of Commerce and tickets for the two days of Rodeo will be available at most local stores.

The event is being sponsored jointly by the Los Compadres club and the Owen B. Coffman post of the American Legion.

Call Meeting to Form Civil Air Patrol Group For Palm Springs Area

A meeting will be held at the Fiesta House on the Desert Inn grounds Monday night at which time organization of a Palm Springs squadron to become part of the Civil Air Patrol and important steps relative to postwar aviation here, will be discussed.

Ed Stevens is chairman of the organization committee which includes Mayor E. E. Theriault, Muriel Fulton, Mrs. H. M. F. Behneman, Dr. H. M. F. Behneman, Lt. George Holtorf, A. G. McManus, Walter Kofeldt, Dr. E. E. Oertel, John Burnham, Major Earl J. Smith.

ADVISORY CAPACITY

Lt. Holtorf and Major Smith will act in advisory capacity to the group.

Major Smith, who is in town as consultant in the community hospital drive, has been a member of the CAP for some time and is a major in that organization.

Explaining the set-up, he said that the CAP was made of civilian flyers who volunteered to aid army air forces in patrol duties when the war broke out. Later they were made an auxiliary of the army air forces.

E. F. Martell Appointed Councilman

Contractor Named
To Succeed
Charles P. Adams

E. F. (Ted) Martell, a twenty-year resident of the Village who makes his home at 325 Marcus road, was Wednesday night appointed to the city council to succeed Charles P. Adams, whose resignation took effect on March 1.

Mr. Martell has been a resident of the second district, which he now represents on the council, for the past two years.

The new councilman has been in the contracting business here for many years. His wife, Mrs. Ellen M. Martell, is also well known here.

Appointment followed presentation of a petition signed by many voters of the district he represents.

Mr. Martell was administered the oath of office yesterday morning by Judge Guy Pinney.

Mr. Martell will take office at the next meeting of city council scheduled for March 21. He will fill out the unexpired term of Mr. Adams who was elected in April, 1942, to continue in office until 1946.

Mr. Adams, engaged in war work, gave the press of this business as cause for his resignation.

5 Appointed to Housing Board

Mayor E. E. Theriault Wednesday appointed members to the Palm Springs Housing authority, recently created here. Members named by the mayor and approved by council are:

Harold West, Robert Ransom, Phil Delano, Florian Boyd and Stanley Rosin.

Authority Granted For New City Job

Because of the great increase in business of service departments of the city and the anticipated even greater acceleration when the war ends, City Manager Ray Sorum asked and was authorized to create the new position of assistant plumbing, electrical and building inspector.

Village Drive For Red Cross Fund Lagging

"The war is progressing in a most satisfactory manner—but the demands on the American Red Cross are greater than ever before and will continue to be greater until long after hostilities have ceased."

Carl Haymond, general chairman of the drive of the Palm Springs branch of the county Red Cross chapter to raise its $26,910 quota, issued that reminder to Villagers today as he set out to exceed the local goal.

NEED MORE SPEED

In Palm Springs, he said, the 1945 Red Cross campaign is not moving as speedily as it should and greater effort on the part of solicitors and citizens in general if the goal is to be reached.

"Never has Palm Springs failed to achieve its assigned quota in any campaign," he pointed out, "and, surely, the most deserving of all causes should not fail."

LOWEST NET COST

"Remember, your 1945 contribution to the Red Cross is a totally deductible expense from your income tax reports, hence you are helping the Red Cross at the lowest net cost to yourself."

Two communities near Palm Springs—Cathedral City and the Desert Hot Springs-Garnet-Whitewater area are a shining example, he added. In each of these communities, residents are giving much more per capita than here.

The Red Cross drive will benefit.

In Busy Week for Village Air Base

Bob Hope, that inimitable funny-man of screen and radio fame takes Palm Springs and the 21st Ferrying Group by storm this coming week with a double-barreled program that will keep himself and everybody else on their toes.

First, a coast-to-coast broadcast, then a match play golf exhibition will have personnel of 21st Ferrying Group, army air base, and Villagers as well as people from the surrounding counties in stitches.

The national networks will pick up Bob Hope's program from the Plaza Theater in Palm Springs on the night of Tuesday, March 13, and broadcast the show to all parts of the country. The program will be aired especially for members of the 21st Ferrying Group who have been invited by the sponsors and personally by Bob Hope to witness the performance.

In fact, Bob has expressed his desire to put the show on exclusively for personnel of army air base because previous broadcasts have been so taken up by civilians.

Arrangements have therefore been made to allow only those in uniform into the theater and any person not having credentials will be excluded. The theater doors will open Tuesday, March 13, at 8:15 p. m. and will close promptly at 6:30 as the program goes on the air at 7 p. m.

Details of the Golf Match between Bob Hope and Bing Crosby scheduled for Sunday, March 18, will be found on the sports page.

How to Write To Prisoners of War Explained

In mailing letters to prisoners of war, Postmaster R. M. Gorham advised Villagers to present the letters to window clerks, preferably the inquiry clerk rather than drop them into the mail slot.

Such letters, he said, should not be postmarked but when dropped into regular mail slots, often are postmarked by accident.

The letters, he suggested, should be enclosed in another unsealed larger envelope, unaddressed or addressed "Prisoner of War Letter". In all instances, he said, such letters should be delivered by hand to a postal clerk.

Veith Announces
Office Hours for Deputy Assessor

William H. Veith, whose appointment as deputy county assessor for the Palm Springs district was reported by County Assessor Frank Burchfield two weeks ago, said this week that starting tomorrow and continuing Saturday, March 17, and Saturday, March 24, he will maintain offices at the Chamber of Commerce from 9 a. m. to noon for convenience of veterans and religious organizations who must file applications annually for exemptions.

He will also assist property owners who have matters to take up relative to property assessments.

ELIGIBILITY TOLD

In addition to those veterans previously entitled to tax exemptions, persons now in the service are eligible for California Veterans' tax exemption as provided by the state constitution amended at the election last November. Men who served in peacetime in a campaign or expedition for which a medal has been issued by Congress are also eligible under the new amendment.

In company with other deputy tax assessors, Mr. Veith attended a training program in which he was instructed on general procedure for fixing property values and the use of the various forms which are provided to assist property owners in making proper declaration of their holdings.

SUCCEEDS HILLERY

Mr. Veith's territory covers Palm Springs and the Desert School district areas. He has been a resident of the city for a number of years and is local Indian agent.

As deputy assessor, he succeeds W. R. Hillery of Cathedral City who recently resigned after serving many years, because of the press of other business and for health reasons.

Christian Science Sunday Lesson on 'Man'

The Golden Text in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Man" in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Leviticus and reads, "Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Ye shall be holy; for I the Lord your God am holy."

A Bible selection from Genesis asserts that "God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." And in the Psalms, David sings, "When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? ... Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Man is not matter; he is not made up of brain, blood, bones, and other material elements. The Scriptures inform us that man is made in the image and likeness of God. Matter is not that likeness. The likeness of Spirit cannot be so unlike Spirit."

Villager Starts New Enterprise

W. W. Whitson, resident of Palm Springs for the past ten years at 1901 San Jacinto Way, was showing friends this week photographs of his new Mercy Drug Store and Hillcrest Bowling alleys which he recently opened in San Diego.

Forty years ago Mr. Whitson developed the Hillcrest area in San Diego and recently when he and his wife came to the Village they thought they had retired.

But last Saturday he started his new business enterprises on the tract he started in 1905.

How Many Roads to Tokyo?

If Messrs. Nimitz, MacArthur and Halsey know which Japanese door they will batter on next they are enlightening neither the Japs nor many experts here at home. Predictions include all possibilities—a hop on Formosa, cutting enemy supply lines from the southwest and establishing close-in staging bases for 24-hour bombing of the Jap home islands; a landing on the Asiatic mainland; and direct attack and invasion of Japan itself.

The route over which the war in the Pacific will travel is no less a matter for public debate than the question of who will be named by Roosevelt to lead the way. Various favored for supreme command from here on in are Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, General Douglas MacArthur, General Dwight Eisenhower, who some apparently expect to finish his big job in Europe in time for the decisive, last Pacific battles—or a military dark horse who will weld all forces of sea, air and land in the final smashing blow.

Admiral Nimitz, at his headquarters in Guam, is only about 1500 miles from Tokyo. Iwo Jima, our latest prize, is only half that far. Formosa, if that should be the next stop, is on the very Jap doorsill.

However their routes may lie and whoever may point the way, all our roads in the Pacific lead to Tokyo—and they are shortening, day by day.

Maurice Evans, now a major in Special Services, lately has been performing in Honolulu for the troops. He did "Hamlet" one evening and was congratulated afterward by a general who had been in the audience. "Very interesting, very interesting," the general said, then added, a little warily, "Tell me, Major, just what did you do before you joined the Army?"—The New Yorker.

A new, more efficient and economical fuel tablet for heating combat rations has been adopted by the Army, Ninth Service Command quartermaster learned today.

"I Rise to Remark"

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

One of the able men, in the newer groups, is Harris Ellsworth of Oregon. You will recall he was the Congressman with whom I went to England last September. He is the publisher of an Oregon newspaper and the owner of several radio stations. He writes a weekly column for the Oregon papers.

His current column is so definitely along the line of some of the things I have been rising to remark, that I have his permission to make him "guest columnist" this week and quote him. His column follows:

"CONGRESSIONAL REFORM. Lately countless words have been written and numerous speeches and radio commentator broadcasts made on the subject of remodeling or streamlining or strengthening Congress.

"Obviously, Congress can be improved. I know of nothing in government—local, state or national—that is not subject to improvement. I feel that Congressional leadership on both sides of the aisle is well aware of the need for certain reforms in Congressional organization and procedure. For some time there has been serious study on this subject which will doubtless result in action during this term of Congress. But, in my opinion, the clamor and shouting on the subject is out of proportion, and not consistent with the facts. The trouble with our federal government is not due to any mechanical failure in the machinery of our Congress. The trouble is much deeper and more fundamental than that.

"The Congress reform movement obviously stems from a vague but universal dissatisfaction with the functioning of the federal government establishment. Being the only one of the three branches of our federal system which operates entirely in the open, with all of its proceedings printed and its chambers and committee rooms open to the public, it is natural that Congress should be the victim of the manifestation of public dissatisfaction with government. It is a natural whipping-boy. What has really happened is that, since 1933, except for a comparatively brief period last session, the Congress has been completely dominated by the executive department. It has not only been a rubber stamp to the will of the executive, but through the years since 1933, it has handed over to the President so many of its powers that the present state of the legislative branch is one of near impotence. We are living, to a large extent, under a federal government by directives issued by the executive.

"My daily mail reveals clearly that this situation is not generally understood. Congress is blamed for things done by the executive—things over which Congress has no longer any control.

"Simple changes in details of committee structure, or even in procedure, reorganization of the existing Congressional salaries will make no noticeable change in the basic situation. The people may easily correct the fundamental difficulties by electing an independent Congress which will take back its proper powers and restore government by law in place of government by executive order."

Every man will have something to do for his friend and something to bear with in him. Only the sober man can do the first; and for the latter, patience is requisite. —Feltham

Tram Plan Told Lions of Hemet

Earl Coffman, chairman of the Mt. Jacinto Tramway committee, Francis F. Crocker and John R. E. Chaffey attended the dinner meeting Wednesday night of the Hemet Lions club and presented facts and figures on the proposed tramway from the desert floor to the San Jacinto winter playgrounds.

Hemet Lions were much interested and favorably impressed by the talks of the local trio.

MORE ABOUT . . .

Hospital Drive . . .

Boyd and M. Smith were guests and after short talks by them, members of the board voted to support the hospital 100%. In addition, each member agreed to give eight hours of time to the campaign, during the coming week.

The Real Estate men and women recognize the importance of having a fine hospital in Palm Springs. It will help the community grow and will serve not only the citizens, but the winter guests who are coming to the Village in increasing numbers each season.

LIONS HAVE LARGEST

The Lions Club which has the largest quota of any organization or group in the hospital campaign is also well on its way.

Merrill Crockett is chairman of the committee. Up to the time of going to press, the Lions Club have reported one-fourth of their quota, or nearly $8,000.00. The Lions is the largest luncheon club in the Village, and to them goes the credit of inaugurating the idea of having a hospital, as far back as four years ago. Each and every member of the club is cooperating in this project.

The restaurants and night clubs and liquor stores group are active in the hospital campaign in two important ways.

BACK PREMIERE

First, they have agreed to raise their quota, amounting to $13,500—and secondly, to help secure special donations of $25 each for which the givers will receive a free pass to the Premiere "God Is My Co-Pilot". These special subscriptions will be taken or rather, received, beginning Monday, March 12, and ending March 21.

This important group is headed by Irwin Schuman and Gordon Feekings, chairmen, assisted by Harold Cohn, Earl T. Gray, Al Wertheimer, Lew Danzinger, George Olive and Neva Youngs. The co-ordinator for the group—as well as the hotel group and the apartments group, is the well-known civic leader, Barney Ostrow. Mr. Ostrow can be seen any day, at the campaign headquarters or on Canyon Drive with a handful of subscription cards and a broad grin.

There are only about a dozen business houses in the restaurants-Bar group who have not signed up. These are expected within the next day or two.

MASONS ACTIVE

The Masonic Club has made the hospital drive its No. 1 activity in March and Lloyd Simon, president, reported more than $3,000 of its $5,000 quota subscribed today.

He and his committee will appreciate any gifts designated for the Masonic Club's quota.

Cathedral City is also working hard on the campaign. At a meeting, given by Mr. and Mrs. George Manderville at the Totem Pole, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Alschuler were present and outlined the project.

NAME COMMITTEE

President J. K. Wolseth of the Chamber of Commerce and W. R. Hillery, a director of the hospital committee, formed a committee of 12 citizens to handle the campaign and to raise $6,000 to finance and equip the four-bed ward of the hospital. On the committee are Frank Russel, Mr. Hillery, Dr. Leon Eilbor, Rev. John G.

KEEP CATHEDRAL CITY CLEAN AND BEAUTIFUL

CAN WE STOP THE LEAKS IN OUR GARBAGE SYSTEM

We have a garbage service—two pick-ups a week. Most people use it, some do not seem to know it exists or do not feel it necessary to use it. These people dispose of their garbage by various methods, most of which infringe on the rights of their neighbors and fellow citizens.

A house without proper garbage disposal becomes an unsanitary establishment and a general nuisance.

If the owners of all rental properties would assume the expense of garbage and add it on to the rent, the O.P.A. would allow this extra necessity. This would solve many of the problems as temporary renters have no way of knowing regulations without constant instruction.

There is a state law which reads: "It is a misdemeanor to deposit garbage or trash on a street or on private property without the consent of the owner." State Penal Code 1939, Chapter 355. This law should be posted where it could be read by everyone. Many people do not realize such a law exists.

The price of garbage service is $1.25 per month. Relieve yourself of this worry now—let the garbage man have it.

Cathedral City

By THE PINCH-HITTER

While Reporter W. R. Hillery is out with the new assessor, giving other people headaches, we have a big headache of our own writing this column all day at our work and all night in our sleep. Please return, Bill, we will be more than glad to pay our taxes just to get you back. Such is the life of a Pinch-Hitter.

Phil Boyd, who won the first prize at the Jamboree, has generously donated the Bond to the Cathedral City Library Building fund. How fortunate our village is to have a friend such as Mr. Boyd. We will all ultimately benefit from his thoughtfulness.

Let us give praise to those civic-minded citizens who took rakes and shovels, etc., and removed the rocks and debris from the main streets. And especially to Mr. Kyle and Mr. Gephart for the pretty little triangle parks they have developed along Broadway.

There was a meeting in the Town Hall March 8, in the interest of the new hospital. Our quota is $6,000.00 and we have never failed in any effort yet—let us keep this record. This column will report on the success of the meeting next week.

The local chapter of the Red Cross is sending out a plea for more help due to the fact that Abels, Claude S. Cobb, E. H. Sprague, Richard Landucci, Ralph McLearn, Mrs. Willard Price, Mrs. Alice McMahon, Mr. Wolseth, Fred Springer and Mrs. Manderville.

A special meeting of the hospital board Friday, it was voted that the hospital will be a fully accredited institution, according to the standards and rules of the College of Physicians and Surgeons. It was felt that an accredited hospital would serve the citizens and winter visitors of Palm Springs better than under any other conditions.

DOCTORS MEET

The action was stimulated by a meeting of the seven medical doctors of Palm Springs and Cathedral City, who met with the executive committee of the hospital board. After the final action on the part of the hospital board, it was moved by Dr. H. M. F. Behneman and seconded by Dr. Henry S. Reid that the medical doctors give their wholehearted and enthusiastic support to the hospital campaign. The staff of the hospital will be appointed by the board of directors.

All persons subscribing $25 or more to the hospital building fund will become a voting member of the hospital association. The membership elects the thirty members of the board of directors. The annual meeting and election will be held Thursday, April 5.

MUSEUM NOTES

(By T. A. D. COCKERELL)

The Palm Springs Desert Museum, in the east wing of the Library Building, is open daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., and on Wednesday and Saturday evenings from 7 to 9:30.

The week of March 7 to 14 is being California Conservation Week, the Museum offers a conservation program on Saturday evening, March 10. Motion pictures will be shown of the Bird Refuge in the Sacramento Valley; of Gray Owl, the noted Canadian Conservationist; of the work of Enos Mills, the noted Colorado Conservationist. Prof. Cockerell will give a talk on Conservation.

STORY OF DRY LAKES

On Wednesday evening, March 14, the subject of the lecture by Prof. Cockerell is "Lake Calahuilla and the Salton Sea". This history of the dry lakes of our deserts will be touched upon. There will be motion pictures.

The week of March 7 to 14 has been set aside as Conservation week, for the purpose of calling the attention of the public to the policies grouped under the name Conservation, which require the intelligent support of every citizen. It has been claimed, apparently with good reason, that scientific discovery and invention have made it possible to abolish poverty, but if this ideal can be reached or approached, it will only be through making the most of our resources. Conservation includes many things. There is the conservation of human health and strength, the conservation of the soil, of the flowers and the birds, and of wild life generally. Within the memory of persons now living there has been a great improvement in the public attitude concerning the destruction of wild life, especially birds, and this change of attitude has been expressed in the form of various laws, and in the establishments of parks or reserves. Moving pictures of such reserves are shown in the Desert Museum.

SLIDES OF FLOWERS

On Monday evening, Dr. Gilman Gist of San Diego exhibited a series of his beautiful kodachrome slides of wild flowers, at the Desert Museum. He told how, a few years ago, a friend asked the name of a roadside plant, (it was the tree tobacco) and when he said he did not know, the friend replied that it was astonishing that he had lived there for thirty years, and did not know the name of such a common object. This started his desire to know and understand plants, and in the past three years he has made slides of hundreds of species, bringing out beauties which usually pass unnoticed. He is now an enthusiastic lover of flowers, and has come to Palm Springs to get pictures of those which bloom in the desert, most of them different from those of the coast.

The field trip to Cathedral Canyon, which was planned for next Sunday, is postponed to Sunday, March 18.

OUR Friend— YOUR Doctor

YES, your Doctor is a good friend of ours. We admire and respect him. And we seek to carry on the sincere, friendly service he is rendering to this community. That is why he—and other good physicians hereabouts—have come to view this pharmacy almost as an extension of their own offices. They call upon us frequently. And they often direct patients to bring prescriptions here for careful compounding.

New Warranty Rule On Used Cars Is Now Effective

New regulations governing the sales of used cars, designed to improve enforcement of price ceilings and afford greater protection for purchasers, will be provided through a recent amendment to the passenger automobile regulation which became effective March 1, according to William Lippman, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing board.

Under the terms of the amendment, the regulation provides a "warranted" car must be in good operating condition before being sold. The dealer is in violation if he fails to provide a written warranty at the time of sale. If, after a sale is made in good faith, reconditioning is found necessary, the dealer is required to refund half of the cost of the work. Failure to do so brings the dealer into violation.

Other changes in the regulation required the tagging of all cars displayed for sale and prohibit the addition of "finders fees" to the ceiling purchase price.

Under the new provisions the "warranty" allowance (25 percent or $100, whichever is greater) can be added to the "as is" ceilings. This was permitted to allow dealers compensation for repairing and reconditioning of used cars before sale, Mr. Lippman said.

It is thought, and thought alone, that divides right from wrong; it is thought, and thought only, that elevates or degrades human deeds and desires.

Freshmen Clever In Ways and Means To Bolster Cash

Those ingenious Freshmen have recently been making the headlines with their scrupulous methods of raising money. The latest inevitable brainstorm has really brought the much-needed cash into the class treasury.

Wednesday, February 28, the neophytes held a shoe-string sale at noon in the cafeteria in which 35 pairs of those brightly colored things were sold with amazing rapidity for 15 cents a piece. In fact, it went over so well that there have been orders for 78 more.

Since then, the student body has turned out almost en masse in red, blue, green and brown plaid shoe strings and the same colors plus yellow, minus brown in solid colors.

Credit goes to Joan Whorton, who thought up the idea and who sold them.

Latest reports from class treasurer, Jimmy Bigley, show that their various sales have netted them the grand total of seventeen dollars and fifty cents, which, it must be admitted, is very good indeed.

Kid Party Great Success, Report Of Girls' League

Voted the best-dressed kids at the Girls' League Kid Party, Friday evening, March 2, were Lila Lee Lilley, Babs Neal, Joy Arkalian and Maurice Smith. Prizes were mammoth peppermint suckers.

Dancing was to the music of the Torney General Orchestra, under the direction of Sergeant Tiffin.

During intermission, Babs Neal and Lila Lee Lilley held the spotlight by doing a hill-billy skit and tap-dance routine. Thirty pennies were pitched on the stage by the wealthy audience, and every cent of it was welcomed by the Girls' League treasury.

In tune with the evening's theme, DeLorse Roth sang "Playmates". Joan Whorton was mistress of ceremonies.

Decorations were under the direction of Erica Orth, and featured large cut-outs of dolls and candy on the walls.

Home-made cakes and cookies, and cokes were served by Maryann Gorcester.

At Learning's fountain it is sweet to drink, But 'tis a nobler privilege to think.

ON THE WAR-PATH WITH ART JONES

Hide yore kids, smear on some grease-paint, grab yore bow and arrows, let out a horrible blood-curdling warwhoop, grab the nearest human, and start scalpin'!

We're back on the warpath!!! Terminating an active three weeks of intensive training, upon their local diamond, and with a very gratifying semi-dress rehearsal with the nearby army softball squad tucked neatly beneath their 58-in belts, our mighty Indian hoard (Maroon and White warpaint, and all) will invade the vaunted Beaumont Cougar's grounds this afternoon, in the initial clash of the 1945 E.R.C.L. softball season!

If those Blue and White rookies have noticed the smoke signals (made by Devers' fire-ball, and Brummitt's strike-outs) rising from our beloved reservation, you can bet they'll have peace-terms all made out and be sucking desperately on a peace-pipe when we arrive today! If they can't interpret Indian sign-language—Oh well, they'll never know what hit 'em!!!

Hero of the week is "$90 seat-covers" Smith, who has finally lowered himself to the catching position and from latest reports, seems to be holding his own very well, although that inner-spring mattress has been springing new leaks lately.

To briefly revue the eleventh hour trial held over at the air base last Friday: Devers delivered a traditionally fine game against the "khaki" for three red-hot innings, aided by the expert fielding of all, and a sizzling batting barrage laid down by Brummitt, Outcault, Emerzian, and a home-run by Moseley. The amazed army boys were struck out, one after another, by Devers' superb pitching, and the game ended 4 to 0 when called at the close of the third inning.

Immediately after this triumph a scrub game took place with the first-string infield, reserve fielders, and reserve pitcher and catcher against the first-string pitcher, catcher, and outfield, and the reserve infield. The latter emerged victorious, 7 to 1.

The probable starting lineup for the game today is: catcher, Smith; pitcher, Devers; first base, John Outcault and Warner Moore still neck-and-neck; second base, Peterson; third base, Brummitt; short-stop, Jurado; and fielders are anybody's choice between Rude, St. George, Emerzian, Moseley, Algase and Bell.

Concerning the outcome of the big premier performance scheduled for this afternoon, Mort Algase (that human (?) "hefty half-breed Huegnot") that always can be seen, tardy-slip in hand, staggering into any class, anywhere, anytime issued a 1,000,000,000-word communique in pig latin (anyway it was his native tongue) to the press in his latest news conference at headquarters this morning. See "shempkin" Rude for translation!

As any fool can plainly see, that old parenthetical style is creeping back into this column. If no one has any direct objections to its return (such as wanting to read this stuff), it will reappear next week in full bloom, and in all its glory!!!

GAZOOZIT

Aladdin rubbed his magic lamp and got whatever wish his dear heart desired. I have no magic lamp, but I suppose I shall heed that old American proverb and cross all bridges when I come to them, even if bridges and lamps have nothing to do with anything. However, often in the course of events upon crossing bridges I have been granted no wishes and on the other hand have been ordered upon arrival to the other end of this man-made structure to pay toll which I am inclined to find very unfortunate indeed. With this little bit of wise philosophy developing fast in my mind I write.

The Kid Dance Friday was strictly speaking, quite the thing.

Here are the statistics. Prizes for the most charming (?) outfits rigged up were presented to Lila Lee, Joy, Babs and Smitty. Lila and Babs put on an interesting skit in the line of entertainment and DeLorse sang "Playmates". Some interesting couples, as I've been told, were Joy and Bobby Jones, Larry and Babs, J.B. and DeLorse, and Dick Doro with Patty Hine.

This same evening, "Porky" gave a slumberless slumber party with a whole house empty except for the slumberers themselves. Bonnie Sue, who made an entertaining Lauren Bacall for the evening, is also as much a bed hog as Porky. Did you ever spend three-fourths of a night trying to crawl back under the covers only to be tossed out on your royal head once more? Viewing the situation at seven in the morning from beneath drooping eye-lids was positively enchanting along with Saturday morning make-up periods.

Saturday night brings news of two parties taking place at precisely the same time. Partygoers were going constantly back and forth. Dart's house was overflowing with cake, while the carpet out our way was covered with two inches of potato salad. That is one good method of obtaining a full course dinner.

Glancing out into the wide world I'm still able to see and hear. Here are some results of many hours painful research. Mazie and McKinney are still going strong. . . . There has been talk about Trudy and Bob breaking up but you never can tell what might have taken place in the last hour so as the Gazooziter said to the gossip 'don't quote me.' . . .

Even when it is raining, either magnetism or force of habit proves Moseley all out for L.T. . . . Joe Damski left P.S. and has made his way back to the state of delirium. She lives in Seattle. With the help of Loren, Mort lost his wallet and also his temper which both seemed to have been recovered some time later, when Algase discovered that even in times like these, jokes remain jokes and shall do so for some time in the future. . . . Everyone is glad to see Hookey up and well after the flu. She was seen at the cinema this weekend with one Tommie Peterson. . . . The Hine twins plus Donald Williams and others paid a visit to Idyllwild recently. . . . Patty Manley was here again and was staying with Joy. . . . Barbara Croft has been reported out with Moseley again. . . . If you haven't seen McKinney around the campus in the last week, remember it's simply because he was purposely a little misinformed on certain matters concerning Senior Ditch Day.

Have you ever come to a time when your mind was at a loss, you were almost out of ink, the noon bell was about to ring, and the deadline was only an afternoon away? Well, I have, but before I give up completely until next week at the same time, I do wish to remark that anyone who stoops to telling lies and making mountains out of mole hills and spreading stories about friends of certain people and the certain people themselves, just to get even with someone for something that somebody did even if they didn't really do it and even if that something had some reason behind it in the first place in the order for the somebody to go about doing the something, then that somebody is just the kind of someone who in trying to get even with the first somebody who didn't even do it.

May We Introduce By MORT AND BOB

BOY OF THE WEEK

On an otherwise memorable date (November 29, 1927, to be more exact) our heap big Senior lad of the week came upon the world weighing approximately 9 pounds, and to this day his hair has remained dark brown and his eyes are still of a hazel cast with flecks of something-or-other in them. However, some avoirdupois and height have been added, totaling a mighty 165 pounds and 6 feet 2 inches.

This rather lanky kid's favorite pastime seems to center around music. He plays the piano with an adept hand, and listens to anything from Beethoven to Basie.

Now on a more or less vague subject, his love life. To the naked eye it doesn't appear to exist, which incidentally, doesn't mean a thing. But I can't afford to let any cats out of the bag so I'd better end this subject now.

His pet peeve is a certain '41 Dodge coupe which never works. It has over a million (slight exaggeration) things wrong with it.

Everyone ought to know this guy as he's been attending P.S. H.S. since his Sophomore year, so may we introduce "Wiggins" of the "Harmony Hall" cast—Paul Mashburn.

Hope you didn't peek.

GIRL OF THE WEEK

Lights out, let the camera roll, action, and into the spotlight slinks a green-eyed five-foot, 135-pound beauty to murmur, "Oh surely the general wouldn't do that," a scene from our coming operetta, "Harmony Hall".

This brown-haired Irish Colleen increased the population of Fresno, California, September 18, 1927, Sunday morning at eight o'clock.

Sometimes she ignores her conscience and indulges in her favorite food, spaghetti and meat-balls and a chocolate shake, but unfortunately they add the pounds.

It's a flip between Dennis Morgan and Van Johnson in the movies. When she sings "I Dream of You" it's not for either of the glamour boys but for a captain in the U. S. Army Air Corps, period. This could explain her fervent interest in flying and nursing.

Harry James' orchestra, Ingrid Bergman, basket ball, baseball and hockey are her current interests.

"The one thing I can't stand in a person is deceit and conceit," quotes she.

Mary Ann Gorcester, Lila Lee Lilley and Pet Mutascio are more often than not seen hovering over those letters addressed to Mrs. N. C. Greer, for you see she holds the distinction of being the only married woman on our fair campus. If you still do not know the name, it is Edith Dunnigan Greer.

more that the first somebodies are not going to lay any trust in some of the things this offending somebody said. It's a sin to tell a lie.

The deepest truths are best read between the lines, and, for the most part, refuse to be written. —A. Bronson Alcott

Annual Play for Senior Class to Be Shown in May

"Spring Green," a 3-act comedy by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clement, was selected by the class of '45 at their meeting on Thursday, March 1, as their spring production.

This play was written by the authors of "June-Mad," produced here by the class of '43. Their other hits include "Ever Since Eve," and "Harriet," a current production starring Helen Fays.

A modern setting will be used and the cast will consist of eight boys and seven girls. Casting for the play will be held from March 12 to March 16 in room two, between 3:00 and 3:30 p. m.

Miss Mary Louise Gaylord, dramatics director, urges all Seniors to try out for parts. Rehearsals will start immediately after the casting is completed.

The majority of the rehearsals will be held in the auditorium between 3:00 and 5:00 p. m.

The story is about a boy whose father just can't understand him, and a girl whose mother understands her only too well. Nina Cassell, the charming and youthful mother of two daughters, has patriotically turned one wing of her rambling old residence into an apartment in order to help the government house the military personnel of a nearby airfield. When the officer in charge of construction moves in, she is surprised to find that he is one of her old suitors.

The girls in the neighborhood have been atwitter over the rumor that the Major's family consists of a son, Newton. When he arrives, he proves to be gentle, absent-minded, and socially awkward, a boy with only one interest in life—the scientific breeding of earthworms. The conflict of his passion for the prettiest girl in town, how it disrupts his father's romance with Nina, and almost lands him in jail, form the plot of the comedy.

"Spring Green" was first produced in Hollywood on April 3, 1944. It will be given at the Plaza Theater during the latter part of April or the beginning of May.

School to Raise $1,000 to Aid Hospital Drive

In a letter drafted by the Student Council, the following was sent to the Palm Springs Community Hospital committee.

Gentlemen: The Student Council of the Associated Student Body of Palm Springs high school, after careful deliberation, has decided on the following program to support the Community Hospital fund drive:

(a) To accept $1000 cash as our primary goal to be collected in cash amounts and in pledges payable on or before May 15.

(b) The school will not accept an apportioned quota as we are not interested in the prizes to be given for filling quotas.

(c) This $1000 is to be directed to paying for the solarium of the new hospital.

(d) This drive is the first of two separate drives to be conducted at this school—the second will be from September 15 to December 31, 1945, and a goal of $1000 or more will be set in September.

Lapidary Expert Displays Art

Mr. H. Douglas Brown, lecturer, writer and engineer, demonstrated the use of the lapidary machine before an assembly of the student body on Friday, March 2.

Besides cutting and polishing stones, he sent around the auditorium, demonstrations of crude and finished stones. Included among his specimens was a plate of semi-precious stones, polished and shaped into oval, square, and various other forms.

Also as a part of his demonstration, Mr. Brown had an ultraviolet lamp, the rays of which, when directed upon certain rocks cause them to glow in the dark.

Mr. Brown explained the uses of, and precautions to be employed, when working with the four wheels on the machine. "Always work from retrogressive wheels, using the hard grind first, then the soft grind and so on. Never skip a wheel in the process," he emphasized.

After the assembly, Mr. Brown gave special instruction to all students who were especially interested in stone cutting. Several students used the machines.

Fourth Film in War Series Is Shown Students

"The Battle For Britain," the fourth in a series of motion pictures, was viewed by Palm Springs high school students in an assembly Monday, March 5.

Captain Joe Caraway, of the Army Special Service Division, has been bringing the films and the guest speakers to the high school for the past few weeks. It was announced at the assembly that Capt. Caraway was being transferred and another member of the division will bring the last of the series next week.

An announcement by Ed Willis was given on the progress of the high school on the Community Hospital drive.

Desert Inn Tennis Court Spotlight of Activity With Many Gala Dinner Affairs Following Weekend Play on Courts

Tennis court at the Desert Inn was the spotlight of activity all weekend with a large crowd of spectators assembled to enjoy the many excellent matches. Perry Jones, tournament director, invited a group of friends to be his dinner guests Saturday evening in De Anza room. Seated with the tennis leader were Col. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, the colonel was official referee of the matches; Mr. and Mrs. Bixler, Margaret Osborne, John Sisson and others.

Also entertaining at the dinner dance Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd, who are spending an extended time at the Inn from Tacoma. Seated with the hosts were Mrs. Geary, Mrs. David Morris, Mrs. Lynden, Alexander Baillie, Mrs. Ripley, Donald McFadden, Mrs. George Howe and Mrs. Gilbert LeBaron Duffy.

FROM SEATTLE

Seated at a nearby table with a group of guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Marsh, of Seattle. In their party were Mr. and Mrs. William Dolph, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Herbert Petting, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haymond, Tacoma and Palm Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shearer, Seattle and winter residents in Palm Springs.

Palm Springs friends are happy to see Mrs. John Snyder out from Indiana for her annual stay at Desert Inn. The Snyder family are among pioneers in this Village, as they first came in 1928 and later owned a home here which they occupied each winter. For the past few seasons she has been making her headquarters at the Inn. Mrs. Snyder's son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Wallace Petersen now are residing in Alexandria, Va. The naval officer recently returned from duty in the Pacific. During his overseas duty Mrs. Petersen stayed in San Francisco, where she served on the staff of the Gray Ladies. She was in Palm Springs last year at the Inn with her mother for the Christmas holidays.

DESERT BARBECUE

Entertaining in the true tradition of the west, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Walsh invited a group of winter visitors for a barbecue luncheon served out on the desert. Mrs. Walsh is spending the entire season at the Inn, and Mr. Walsh comes west from Omaha whenever his business permits. Prior to his departure for Nebraska last Tuesday they honored a group

Woman's Club Enjoys Interesting Monodrama

By MARTHA FORWARD

"The Invincible Miss Kemble," as presented by Jeanne Welty, beautiful, young monodramatist, on the stage of the Palm Springs Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, rounded out a full complement to the roster of precocious talent that has been featured on this season's programs. Her performance achieved a careful balance between technical training and the thematic line of the play, which attained celerity and a professional flair not often realized outside of the legitimate theatre.

The monodrama, as presented by Miss Welty, is an incorporation of the best features of the dramatic monologue together with the action and brilliant costuming of the legitimate theatre. Audiences thus get the effect of a regular stage play, though it is enacted by one person with a single voice carrying the entire dramatic action. Her production represented a tremendous task of research—gathering material on her characters and the modes and manners of their time. After that she writes the play and designs her costumes, then polishes the production until it reaches that degree of dramatic verity which one finds so moving when she appears. Only a person with a great gift for theatre can give to the prodigious amount of loving care, imagination and inspiration that marked her performance. And only a person with exceptional appeal as an actress can captivate an audience as she did.

FULL LENGTH PORTRAIT

The story centered about one Fanny Kemble—a beautiful, bewildered girl, who became the idol of the British stage, came on to America for a series of triumphal tours, was a reigning favorite from Boston to New Orleans and in the final act submerges her beauty and talent by marrying the most eligible bachelor in New York city who insensitively makes of her a veritable prisoner from her world which had accorded to her the love and applause so justly deserved.

It is the full-length portrait of one woman—there are many involved—and it affords a psychological development, showing how fate played her strange tricks. Fanny Kemble was portrayed not primarily as an important historical figure, but as a woman whose dazzling public career was at variance with her private happiness. Miss Welty's vivid portrayal of this noted woman drew a round of enthusiastic and appreciable applause from her audience.

In co-operation with the group of workers who are directing the campaign to raise $150,000.00 which will build Palm Springs' Community Hospital in the near future, Mrs. William A. Lippman, the club's president, asked them to give their report of funds already pledged so that those assembled would be made aware of the progress already in motion.

DESCRIBES HOSPITAL

Florian Boyd, president of the hospital board, asked Earl Smith, who is directing the campaign, to give a detailed description of the architecture, size and scope of this proposed structure. Mrs. Freda Zimmerman, secretary to President Boyd, gave her report of amounts contributed to date and other additional contributions were reported by Mrs. Charles Farrell and Mrs. Armand Turonnet who are both working diligently for the success of this much needed asset to the community. It is definitely assured that Palm Springs residents and organizations are wholeheartedly behind the project. Mrs. Charles Farrell introduced Diana Lewis (Mrs. William Powell) who expressed the sincere approval of herself and her husband of such commendable civic enterprise and gave a short pep talk of encouragement to the audience.

NEWLYWEDS—Major and Mrs. Jack Hardy (Barbara Clatworthy Farr) cutting their wedding cake. They are today honeymooning in Washington, D. C.

Major Jack Hardy and Bride, Former Barbara Clatworthy Farr, Honeymooning In Washington, D. C., After Yuma Wedding

Honeymooning today in Washington, D. C., after their marriage at Yuma recently, were Major Jack Hardy and his bride, the former Barbara Clatworthy Farr. Within a few days he will depart for important duties overseas and she will return to Palm Springs to await the end of the war.

The well known and popular young Village couple slipped away to Yuma and were married February 24, surprising their many friends who had anticipated the ceremony soon but at a later date.

GUESTS OF HONOR

Upon their return here they were guests of honor at a reception tendered by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ruth Hardy of the Ingleside Inn, who assembled a number of friends at the Inn for the happy occasion. Nomination Committee Named for Annual C. of C. Meeting April 3;
Action Taken on Important Airways Matter

Appointment of a nominating committee to prepare for the annual election of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, April 3, action on a radio and television committee and many other items came before the board of directors, meeting Tuesday noon at the Desert Inn, for decision.

President Gordon Feeckings named Fred Ingram, chairman, Robert Ransom and Earl Coffman on the committee with Secretary Walter Kofeldt and Mr. Feeckings as ex-officio members.

President Feeckings named Herbert Samson as chairman of the Radio and Television committee following plans for the Palm Springs Broadcasting company read by Mr. Kofeldt.

Earl Coffman gave a detailed report on the progress of the tramway project. He is chairman of the Tramway committee. Mr. Coffman said that he was confident the legislature would pass the tramway measure.

In the absence of Francis F. Crocker, chairman of the Airways Committee, President Feeckings read his report and the board unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce request the city of Palm Springs to take necessary steps in order to negotiate a lease with the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians and the Department of the Interior to acquire a lease for the East Half of Section 12, T4S, R4E, SBBM.

The reason for this is in order to secure and hold the improvements now existing at the Airport so that when the Airport is returned to the City of Palm Springs for civilian purposes all of the improvements on Indian land will be protected by proper leases as are now those existing on Section 18 alone.

Further that the City of Palm Springs undertake an investigation as to the ownership of those portions of Section 7 and 13 now occupied by improvements installed by the U. S. Army so that in the event the Airport is returned to the City of Palm Springs suitable steps may be undertaken to acquire the land necessary for airport purposes and so improved in those sections.

"It is known that the lease now existing between the U. S. Army and the Department of Interior on 12 is only for the duration and six months thereafter for which the Indians are receiving $300 a year for 1/4 Section or 160A which is approximately $2 per Acre per year. It is the desire of the Committee to impress upon the Board of Directors and the City of Palm Springs the importance of taking the above recommended steps immediately for at the present time should the war be concluded the City of Palm Springs will have no protection for holding the continuity of this marvelous and important existing Airport."

Reports on activities of the Postwar committee by John R. E. Chaffey, of the Banning Postwar meeting by Mr. Kofeldt, appointment of Phil Delano as chairman of a new committee to aid new

NOTABLE STARS OF SPORTS WORLD COMING SATURDAY

A gala array of world famous stars of the sports world, headed by former world boxing champion, Jim Jeffries, and the world's wrestling king, Jim Londos, are coming to Torney on next Saturday afternoon, March 10, to present a great show for patients and duty personnel there.

Stars of boxing, wrestling, vaudeville and the movies are being brought here by Sports Service, Inc., headed by Gerry Geisler, noted Los Angeles attorney, and Bill Smith of the California State Athletic Commission.

Exhibition boxing matches, wrestling bouts, vaudeville acts and trapeze and stunt events will feature the full afternoon's show, being held in the athletic "amphitheatre" north of the A and D building. In addition to Jeffries and Londos, other nationally known sports figures to take part are Barney Ross, the world's greatest lightweight fighter, "Beans" Reardon, big league baseball umpire who has just returned from an overseas tour, Dan Toby, "The Mouthpiece", the world's greatest sports announcer, the Motter Brothers, trapeze act from Paramount Studios, the Harvey Perry Stunt Troopers from Warner Brothers Studios, a crew of leading boxers and wrestling stars from Hugh Nichols stables in Hollywood, as well as many vaudeville luminaries.

The group is being brought here through the efforts of Sgt. "Tex" Salkeld.

RED CROSS DRIVE BEGINS

The American Red Cross has opened its 1945 War Fund Drive with an appeal to the nation for $200,000,000 to continue its world wide operation with battle front troops, in hospitals and on the home front.

Captain Charles S. Gage, Chief Reconditioning Officer, who is chairman of the drive here, and Miss Mildred Gavin, acting Red Cross Field Director, urge all at this Post, military and civilian alike, to do their utmost in making this drive the most successful in history. The drive will continue throughout the month of March, and contributions to the fund from military personnel may be left in the Educational Reconditioning office in Building 75 and from civilian personnel to Mrs. Hazel Henderson, Civilian Personnel.

The American Red Cross has filled a tremendous job in this present conflict and the result can never be measured in figures or terms of money. However, figures published by the organization prove interesting. In the past year 5,000,000 pints of blood have been collected; 10,800,000 Prisoner of War Food Parcels packed in R. C. Centers; 5,000,000 servicemen, exservicemen and their families given guidance, information and assistance; 150,000 movies shown in hospitals; 921 overseas clubs and clubmobiles in operation; 250,000 servicemen trained in First Aid and Water Safety.

SPENDS ROUGH 18 HOURS

Tokyo remembers one Torney patient! 2nd. Lt. Glen Hocker, a patient in Ward A-1, was a bombardier in a B-29 Super-Fortress crew which had so successfully bombed that capital on December 22 as well as taking part in the initial blasting of Iwo Jima.

Heading for Japan on his sixth mission with a fleet of this most powerful of all heavy bombers, Lt. Hocker's plane lost two of its four engines and crashed into the Pacific off the coast of Japan. Five of the crew were lost, but the remaining six were picked up 18 hours later by a U. S. destroyer. Three of these men were in a life raft but Lt. Hocker and two others used their "Mae Wests" until a returning "Super-Fort" dropped them a rubber raft which the three had to inflate by their own lung power, plus "half the Pacific."

Based on Saipan with a B-29 group of the 20th Air Force for four months, Lt. Hocker was returned here for hospitalization on February 20.

Kin of Villagers Wins Promotion at Overseas Hospital

William A. Runkle, whose wife, Louise, and son, William A., Jr., are now residents of Palm Springs, has been promoted to a lieutenant colonel in the army medical corps at a large general hospital in Paris, France, according to word received here this week.

As chief of the X-ray department which is the "eyes" for the other departments of the hospital, Col. Runkle heads a large staff of highly-trained technicians doing work which is an immeasurable aid in facilitating the treatment of sick and wounded soldiers.

The X-Ray machine speedily determines the position and nature of foreign bodies such as bullets and shrapnel and guides the work of the surgeon.

Producing an average of 2500 X-rays a month, the department also has a wide use for the fluoroscope which seeks out gastric intestinal disorders.

A graduate of the University of Virginia in 1925, Col. Runkle attended the Rudner Medical Clinic, Memphis, Tennessee, in 1930. Commissioned in 1942, he was assigned to the Army-Navy General Hospital, Hot Springs, Arkansas, and later with the Torney General Hospital in California as chief of X-ray. Col. Softball Squads Herald Approach Of Spring Season

The first signs of spring were in the air last Friday afternoon, March 2, as "King" softball made his appearance on the Army Air Base, home of the 21st Ferrying Group, of the Air Transport Command.

A practice scrimmage game was held between a pick-up team representing the Air Base which engaged the Palm Springs high school players. Although the game was called in the third inning, Coach Thompson and his high school team defeated the soldiers by a score of 3 to 0.

On the mound for the soldiers was the star chucker of last year, S/Sgt. Glen Cartwright and before he could loosen up those sore muscles due to inactivity on the hill, the high school boys had three runs across the plate. It was enough to win.

It is planned to have another game Saturday, March 10 at 3 P. M. A full seven-inning game is expected to be played.

Star Ping Pong Players to Meet

A table tennis tournament, "Ping-Pong," will make its bow before members of the 21st Ferrying Group, Ferrying Division of the ATC, Army Air Base here, in the very near future, it was announced today. Players rated as the best in the country are going to vie for honors with a team composed of soldiers stationed at the air base here.

Although the military team has not been organized as yet, a call for players with the deadline for entries set at March 15, has already brought out some hopefuls.

Air Base Tennis Stars Compete In Big Tourney

Although no team matches were played by the 21st Ferrying Group, of the ATC, Army Air Base here, several of its members competed in the annual Palm Springs Invitational Tennis tournament.

The games which were held during the last weekend, drew some of the best players in the nation and the Army Air Base team faced them in some very close and hard-fought matches. The experiences gained by this team, it is said, will be of great help in future team matches.

The results of the tournament were as follows:

First Round: John Sisson, defeated Pvt. Bob Smith—6-2 and 8-6. Harry Butteiner defeated Capt. Jack Anderson—6-0 and 6-1. Ed Barker defeated Bob Falkenberg by default.

Second Round: Glen Bassett defeated Ed Barker—6-2 and 8-6.

The next scheduled match the 21st Ferrying Group team will face, is the strong Palm Springs Tennis Club on March 13. Another match against the 6th Ferrying Group, Long Beach, is also on tap for the local military racquet busters.

Cheerfulness keeps up a kind of daylight in the mind, filling it with a steady and perpetual serenity.

Most of the quarter and semi-final rounds were completed before the rain made play impossible.

FINALISTS NAMED

In the men's singles, Elwood Cooke, Los Angeles, former runner-up in World's Singles Championships at Wimbledon, will meet Morey Lewis, also of Los Angeles, and former single's and double's champion of California in the finals.

Cooke won in the semi-finals from Harry Buttiner, San Francisco, for northern California's double's champ, 6-1, 1-6, 6-2 and Lewis eliminated Nick Carter, San Francisco city champion, 6-3, 8-6.

HOT MATCH DUE

Pauline Betz, national net queen, went into the women's finals with a 6-3, 8-6 victory over Louise Brough, champion of California, runner up for the U. S. crown in 1942 and 1943. She will meet Sarah Palfrey Cooke, 1941 U. S. champion in the finals.

The line up for the doubles finals was stymied by the rain but not before Jack Knemeyer and Lewis got into the final bracket. Three teams are still a possibility for the other bracket: Cooke and Eddie Woodall, Vincent Fotre and Mel Gallagher and Buttiner and Jimmy Livingston.

Closing match of the day will be the mixed doubles finals in which Margaret Osborne and John Sisson will meet Louise Brough and Joseph Bixler.

Play will start at 1:30 p. m. and the final matches are set for 3:45 p. m.

Stars to Tangle On Golf Course to Aid Soldiers' Fund

What promises to be a walking carnival for laughs and chuckles will be a surprise meet between Bing Crosby and Bob Hope on the fairways of the Palm Springs O'Donnell Golf Course, Sunday, March 18.

It will be mashies at thirty paces when these radio and movie top-notchers tee off for a benefit exhibition match with two prominent members of the 21st Ferrying Group as their partners.

The hysterical club-swinging affray bids fair to be one of the highlights of the winter sports season with visitors from far and near coming here to see these two lovable characters battle it out in their own amazing way. And don't think there won't be some very good golf pulled out of the bag, too, for both of the boys have a reputation for being a "bit of all right" with the clubs.

Proceeds of the match will go to the 21st Ferrying Group Athletic and Recreation Association Fund for the purchase of additional sports equipment for the field. The public has been invited and a large gallery is expected at $1.10 per person, including tax for civilians, 50 cents per person for officers and their families and a FREE ticket to all GIs.

Time of tee-off is estimated at about 1 P. M., with Bing teamed up with Sgt. John Oliver in a best-ball match play against Bob and Captain Jack Anderson, both of the Air Field.

Tickets will be available at stores and civic organizations in Palm Springs, Indio, Banning, Beaumont, Riverside and San Bernardino and the gymnasium and the Public Relations office at the field.

Village Fish Game Association Hears From State Chief

Members of the Palm Springs Fish and Game Conservation association met at the Fire Hall Monday evening in regular March meeting and heard Nate Milner, retiring chairman of the State Fish and Game commission tell of the duties of that board.

He was introduced by Barney Johnson.

Mr. Milner said that the cost of producing trout in the state hatcheries had been reduced from approximately $3 per pound to 40 cents. He predicted that California will have the best fishing in America in the next five to eight years as result of new methods of hatching, feeding and planting.

State Game Warden Jim Bluit led a discussion of the local quail and pheasant situation and talked of possibilities of changing the bag limit and open season dates. A spaghetti dinner was prepared and served by Harry Mustascio and Tony Biavasshi.

El Centro Quint Has Situation in Hand, 48 to 42

In the final basket ball game of the 1944-45 season, the All Stars, quintet of the 21st Ferrying Group was defeated by the El Centro Marines by a score of 48 to 42. The game was played in the Post gym of the Army Air Base and was witnessed by more than 100 Palm Springs citizens, in addition to a gallery filled with military personnel.

Taking an early lead, the Marines led by a 27 to 20 score at half time and continued to pour it on the All Stars in the final half. Nevertheless, the game was a thriller from start to finish and furnished the crowd with some spectacular basket ball. Pvt. Sam Calish hit the hoop for 17 points but all was for naught as the smooth floor play of the El Centro visitors combined with long basket shots was enough to provide the win. Pfc. Don Voss led the Marines with an eagle eye that totaled 16 points.

Out of a total of 14 games played throughout the season, the 21st Ferrying Group won six and lost nine games.

U. S. Petroleum
Institute Honors
Late Tom O'Donnell

W. R. Boyd, Jr., president of the American Petroleum Institute of which the late Thomas A.
O'Donnell of Palm Springs was the first president, last week issued the following tribute to the memory of the departed Villager:

THOMAS A. O'DONNELL
1872 - 1945

Springs has come to the California desert that Tom O'Donnell loved so well and with it has come that entrancing vision of vast carpets of wild flowers mingled with glimpses of gleaming sand and sparkling water that comes tumbling down from massive, ageless Mount San Jacinto with its pine-edged mantle of snow, radiant in the dawn.
That vision Tom took with him as he joined the immortal caravan of oil men who have preceded him on the journey to that land where every flower-covered hill must be a new structure and where every new structure must surely be a new oil field.

Tom took with him also the pleasant recollection of a full and happy life; a host of friends, of countless kindnesses to others, and of a great industry that he had helped so much to make. As his eyes closed on this mortal scene he was content and glad that his industry of oil had once again contributed so much to the survival of his country and the things it meant to him, and to an infinitely greater degree even than in that first conflict to which he gave so freely of his own effort and ability.

Reflecting on the meaning of the many great oil fields of the San Joaquin Valley and the Los Angeles Basin that he had helped find and bring into production,
Tom O'Donnell felt justly proud that with their oil a great new empire had grown and prospered and that their oil was now fighting and bringing freedom again to the people of that mighty western ocean with which our nation's destiny is so inseparably linked.

Especially close to Tom's heart was the great fraternity of oil men of which he was a founder a quarter century ago and of which he was the President who guided it through the first four critical years. The American Petroleum Institute joins oil men everywhere in honoring a man to whom the entire industry and the nation owe so much. Tom O'Donnell! Ave, atque, vale!

Village Businessman

This week comes another pioneer Villager to grace this column.

It's Harry Brott who has been administering to the pharmaceutical needs of the community for the past 16 years.

Mr. Brott was born in New York state but a low flying plane went overhead just then and the writer didn't catch the year. Twenty-four years ago he came to California and 16 years ago to Palm Springs.

He was with Virgil Newell in that picturesque old adobe drug store, now the Palm Springs
Drug, even before H. E. "Pat" Patterson came to town. He opened the Village Pharmacy in 1934 and managed it three years. The rest of the time before teaming up with Jack Las-ley in his present store, the Desert Drug company, he was with Pat.

With Mr. Lasley, who'll crash these columns later, he opened the Desert Drug company in September, last year, and has been going strong ever since.
Mr. and Mrs. Brott were married 35 years ago and their son,
Kenneth, is now a tax expert in Santa Aan.

Their home here is on Indian Trail, the original trail across the desert, and is known as the Indian Trail house. They have lived there for the past three years.

Mrs. Brott helps her mate in seeing that all goes well at the Desert Drug.

(P. S.—In last week's Business Man picture the name of Doc Waughop, photographer, was inadvertently omitted.)

Lull in Building
Operations Here
After Record Week

Building operations dropped off this week following last week's record of almost $100,000

sued.

They were to W. H. Cox, Section 14, for a new dwelling,
$1250, and to Robert Gray, 1310
Camino del Primrose for alterations, $100.

Total for March is now $1350
and for the year to date, $160,- 295.

Total for the entire year of 1944 was $164,174.50.

February, 1945, with construction valued at $115,485 started, was the largest building month
in the incorporated city's history, City Manager Ray Sorum told council Wednesday night.

Bundles may be left at the Red Cross or Health Center or donors may call Mrs. George B. Davies, 3024.

Jose Iturbi Says Aviation, Piano Playing, Similar

Since the war Jose Iturbi, who plays here on March 16 at the Plaza Theater, has been a member of the Civil Air Patrol, but before Pearl Harbor he flew his own plane and would have been very apt, in those days, to arrive here for his concert in "El Turia", his Howard five-seater plane which he had named after the river in his native Valencia.

Iturbi has been flying "officially" since September, 1938, and holds a private flying license. He has found flying and piano playing have a kind of coordination in common, but declares they are a little different. "In piano playing you can make a mistake and say 'I beg your pardon,' but when you are flying 15,000 feet up and make a mistake . . . You can only make one mistake, the second is too late!" An impressive gesture completed his comparison. Long an enthusiastic flier, Iturbi was one of the first passengers to fly across the English Channel—in an old Farman plane twenty or twenty-two years ago. He is more afraid of riding on a train than of flying, he states. In the plane, he says, the only danger is in taking off and landing. On a train he feels in constant danger.

When he bought his plane, Benny Howard, the builder, rolled up his sleeves and put the final touches on it with his own hands. The ship cruised easily at 210 miles an hour and made 235 miles at high speed. Iturbi's pilot until the war was Horton Hale, of Eastern Airlines and TWA experience. "Iturbi did most of the piloting himself," reports Hale. "The fingers which have thrilled thousands in their gallops over piano keys are deft on a stick or rudder wheel."

Desert Hot Springs

Despite lower temperatures and a bit of rain in the air, many journeyed out from Los Angeles last weekend to enjoy the hot plunge.

A. Blanco of San Francisco, who plans to build a motion picture house, expressed surprise on a recent visit to see the many improvements, especially on the roads. Among visitors were Mr. and Mrs. John R. Groch, daughter Jeannette, Capt. Bernard C. Beel of Balboa who has just returned from the South Pacific, Mrs. Barbara Landis and Miss Ruth Blankenship of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Kinchner of Vashen, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Newport were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Moody at their trailer park home on Fourth street. All are Long Beach residents.

Latin Quarter's License Delay Now Nearing End

The long-delayed beer and wine license for the Latin Quarter was a bit nearer today following action by city council Wednesday.

The council had protested the license on the grounds that it was a new license and not a transfer of the Harry Varous license.

At Wednesday night's meeting council agreed to withdraw its request providing the state board issue the license to replace the Varous license and would not not classify it as a new license.

OPA Publicity Man And Wife Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis were guests in the Village this week of City Clerk Louise McCarn.

Mr. Davis is in charge of the OPA publicity bureau in Los Angeles.

Council to Aid in Request for Survey

Council Wednesday acted favorably on a request of the Welfare and Friendly Aid association and the Palm Springs Woman's club to join in a request to the State Youth Authority for a survey of county conditions.

Jimmy Swinnerton Canvasses Shown At the Desert Inn

James Swinnerton, one of Palm Springs' first artists and a personal favorite with many, has a number of his newest canvases on exhibit in the lobby of Desert Inn. As the artist is busy in his studio at present, Mrs. Swinnerton has brought the beautiful oils here to show for a week or ten days.

On exhibit are several of his large paintings including: "San Jacinto in a Storm", one of the finest representations of our best known mountain. It is painted from near Cathedral City and depicts the sturdy, snow capped peak lifting its head up through the cloak of mist. Others to be seen are "Smoke Tree and Desert Verberna", showing the delicate gray bush with a carpet of purple covering the sand below; "House By the River", depicting a solitary cottage with the entire countryside at its feet; "Edge of Death Valley", which is one of the most unusual representations of that great chasm. Besides the group hanging in the lobby a number of other canvases are at the Inn which will be shown on appointment by contacting Mrs. Swinnerton.

The artist, who last month held a most successful one-man show in the Biltmore Hotel gallery, gets an excellent sky quality combined with a feeling of peace and distance in his desert work. Swinnerton is a member of the Allied Artists of America and holds an office in the Sanity in Art, a nationally known group.

One of the finest tributes to his work was made by the noted artist, Thomas Moran, who was painting alongside of Swinnerton one time. He said, "You keep on with your clouds, son, and some day you will surpass me." The old artist was then about 80 years old and had produced some of the finest work of his time.

Swinnerton has lived many years on the desert. He came to Palm Springs as early as 1910, and was one of the pioneer guests at the Village's world famous Desert Inn.

One of Palm Springs' major assets of the post war era is its municipal airport. Our airport is considered by experts to be the equal of airports for communities many times the size of Palm Springs. Airlines who have applied to C. A. B. for permission to use the Palm Springs Airport are American, Western, T. W. A., Southwest Airways and Ryan School of Aeronautics. Timely Picture to Be Shown at Plaza Theater Next Week

The changes wrought by war on the West Coast and the problems that face that region when the end of the war releases a flood of workers now tied up in defense work are taken up by the latest of the March of Time releases, which is easily one of the best and most significant of the series.

It will be shown at the Plaza theater Tuesday through Thursday nights and Wednesday and Thursday afternoon.

Suggested are ways and means of solving the post-war difficulties that are certain to present themselves in the reconversion from war to peace. Considerable emphasis is placed on how peace is expected to alter the economy of the West Coast and open up new sources of wealth and employment. Shots of the West Coast scenery lends the footage a visual appeal. The short touches on many phases of life along our Pacific seaboard. The film industry gets its share of attention.

In conjunction with this timely feature, "Music for Millions", one of the year's best, will be shown. Because of the Bob Hope broadcast Tuesday, "Music for Millions" will be shown at special matinees Wednesday and Thursday, Earl Strebe, theater owner, said.

Pay your telephone bill before

Open Letter

TO THE CITIZENS OF PALM SPRINGS—

We are very much interested in the proposed hospital to be built in Palm Springs as a community hospital.

We were informed that the hospital would be open for all citizens who in turn could have the doctor of their choice. It has come to our attention that the board of the hospital has decided that the new hospital is to have a closed staff. Under this new order it will not be open to everyone in the community. This means that any citizen, whether he subscribes to the hospital fund or not, cannot use the facilities of the hospital if he employs a physician and surgeon holding the D. O. degree.

According to the laws of the State of California, there is no logical or legal reason why the public cannot have a free choice of physician and surgeon, whether the patient is treated in the doctor's office or in the hospital. This is your community and you should have the privilege of deciding what type of service you want when you are ill.

We believe the state should license the doctors, and that we should provide the facilities for the use of all physicians and surgeons, and not for a few.

We are contributing and asking everyone to contribute for an open community hospital, and we urge that you attach the following statement to your pledge and check: "Acceptance of this check is on the condition that the Community Hospital and all its facilities are available to any physician and surgeon licensed by the State of California."

First Place Goes To Sally Lockett In Speech Contest

Miss Sally Lockett was adjudged winner in the eighth annual Lions-sponsored high school speech contest staged yesterday at the club's meeting at the Desert Inn.

Three excellent talks were presented on the subject, "What My Parents Mean to Me." They were by Miss Lockett, Mortell Goldberg and Cecile Morris. All showed excellent preparation and careful thought on the topic.

Miss Mary Louise Gaylord, of the high school staff who trained the group, was also a guest of the club yesterday.

Judges were Florian Boyd, William Veith and Raymond Cree. W. R. Hillery was program chairman for the day.

Tex Orton and his adopted daughter, a Chinese girl, gave an exhibition of knife throwing in which he outlined the girl's figure on a board with heavy knives. Lions were given an opportunity to let Orton try his skill on them or the alternative of contributing to the hospital fund. A tidy sum was raised for the hospital fund.

Vice-president Harold West presided at the meeting.

Cpl. Milo Brody, while hitchhiking to Palm Springs recently left a picture of his wife in the car of a man who gave him a lift. It was a late picture which he prized very much.

So if the gentleman, driving a convertible 1940 will forward the picture to the Village Pharmacy, Cpl. Brody will be very grateful.

Permits Granted For Private Dances

Dance permits for March 15 and 16 were granted the Palm Springs hotel by council Wednesday night.
